SABBATH DAY SERVICES

"Mother's Day" to be Observed in Many Churches.

REVIVALS TO CONTINUE

Successful Evangelistic Meetings in Progress in North End and East End Churches—Rev. E. T. Wellford Returns from Alexandria.

Special "Mother's Day" services are to be held in many of the local churches today. A special program for this service has been arranged at the Second Baptist church this morning at 11 o'clock and the children will unite in the special services at the Chestnut Avenue Methodist church this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Successful revivals have been held during the past week at the Second Baptist church, Grace Methodist church and East End Christian church. The revivals at the first two churches will be continued through this week.

Second Baptist.

A special "Mother's Day" service will be held at the Second Baptist church this morning at 11 o'clock. The pastor, Rev. J. T. Riddick, will preach a special sermon on the topic, "The Mother's Responsibility and the Child's Obligation." White flowers to be worn in honor of the mothers will be furnished at the door of the church. The program for the service is as follows:

Voluntary Prof. Godwin
Invocation Congregation
Hymn Rev. J. T. Riddick

Congregation

Hymn Congregation
Prayer G. W. Nichols
Announcements G. W. Nichols
Quartette of four mothers, composed of Mesdames Cusby, Jones, Kemp and Rousa.

Sermon Rev. J. T. Riddick
Solo—"Tell Mother I'll Be There."
Hymn Mrs. J. W. Knight
Benediction Rev. J. T. Riddick
Tonight at 8 o'clock, Rev. Mr. Riddick will preach a special sermon for railroad men, and both the morning and evening services will be evangelistic.

The revival services which have been in progress at this church during the past week have been very successful, there being twenty-five professions of faith.

Trinity Methodist Church.

"Has the Creator of This World Ever Promised That It Shall Never Be Destroyed?" Rev. William G. Starr, D. D., pastor of the Trinity Methodist church will answer this question in a sermon which he will deliver tonight at 8 o'clock. This morning at 10 o'clock, the pastor will speak on, "Can a Human Heart Be Hammered for Lack of a Level Head?" The Sunday school will meet at 9:30 a. m., and at the same hour the Men's Bible class will assemble in the auditorium of the church.

St. Paul's Episcopal.

Rev. Thomas C. Darst, the rector, will occupy the pulpit of St. Paul's Episcopal church this morning at 11 o'clock and tonight at 8 o'clock. The Men's Bible class will meet in the church building at 9:45 a. m., and at the same hour the Sunday school will convene in the Sunday school building.

Thirtieth Street Christian.

Two important themes will be discussed today by Rev. J. Edward de Gafferty, pastor of the Thirtieth Street Christian church, and it is expected that large congregations will attend both services as the subjects are closely related and counter explanatory. The subjects are: 11 a. m.,

"Can a Man Be Saved by Joining the Church?" 8 p. m., "Can a Man Be Saved Without Joining the Church?" The Bible school will meet at 9:45 a. m., and the Christian Endeavor will assemble at 7 p. m. An men of the city who are not members of a Sunday school have been invited to meet at the Sunday school for the purpose of organizing a Bible class for men only.

Trinity Lutheran.

Regular services will be held today at the Trinity Lutheran church, the pastor, Rev. A. C. Karkau, preaching at 11 a. m., and 8 p. m. The Sunday school will meet at 9:45 a. m., the catechetical class meets at 3 p. m., and the Luther League at 7 p. m.

Newport News Baptist.

A special service for mothers and their children will be held at the Newport News Baptist church at 11 o'clock this morning, the pastor, Rev. Lloyd T. Wilson, D. D., preaching on "Mothers and Their Children." A section of the auditorium will be reserved for the children and the children's choir will assist in the service. "A Finished Portrait," will be discussed by the pastor at 8 o'clock tonight and the Sunday school will meet at the usual hour this morning.

St. Vincent's Catholic.

Services will be held today at St. Vincent's Catholic church as follows: First mass, 8:30 a. m., second service, 10:30 a. m.

Grace Methodist.

Rev. J. T. Taylor, pastor of the Chestnut Avenue Methodist church, has been conducting a very successful revival at the Grace Methodist church during the past week and the service will be continued through the coming week. There have been many conversions since the revival began and the revival has been the most successful held at the church in several years. This morning at 11 o'clock, the pastor will receive new members into the church and tonight at 8 o'clock, Rev. Mr. Taylor will again preach.

First Presbyterian.

Rev. E. T. Wellford, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, has returned from Alexandria, Va. where he conducted a very successful revival. He will occupy his pulpit at 11 a. m., and 8 p. m. today. The Sunday school and Bible classes will meet at 9:30 o'clock this morning.

Tabernacle Baptist.

Rev. T. Y. Seymour, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church, announces his subjects for today as follows: 11 a. m., "Christ the Good Shepherd"; 8 p. m., "The Temptation of Jesus." The Sunday school meets at 9:30 a. m.

Hampton Roads Christian Union. Mothers' services will be held at the Hampton Roads Christian Union this afternoon at 3 o'clock by the Sunday school. A membership campaign also will be inaugurated at the Union tonight at 7:45 o'clock.

Calvary Baptist.

Rev. S. L. Naff, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church, announces his subjects for today as follows: 11 a. m., "Mothers," 8 p. m., "Some Things Jesus Will Do When He Comes." The Sunday school will meet at the usual hour this morning.

Chestnut Avenue Methodist.

The pastor, Rev. T. J. Taylor will occupy the pulpit of the Chestnut Avenue Methodist church at the usual hours today. A reception for the new members of the church will be held this morning at 11 o'clock and the service tonight will be evangelistic. Rev. George W. Wray, of Hampton, will preach at the Cottonwood Avenue Methodist church this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Church of Christ.

Communion services will be held at the Twenty-fourth Street Church of Christ this morning at 10:45 o'clock and tonight at 8 o'clock, H. W. Dunn will occupy the pulpit. The Sunday school will meet at 9:45 o'clock and the mid-weekly prayer service will be held Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Second Presbyterian.

Rev. P. B. Henderlite, the pastor, will preach at the Second Presbyterian church this morning at 11 o'clock and tonight at 8 o'clock. The Sunday school will meet at the usual hour this morning.

Grace Episcopal.

Services will be conducted at the Grace Episcopal church at the usual hours today, the rector, Rev. Robert H. Wright, preaching at 11 a. m., and 8 p. m. The Sunday school will meet at 9:30 a. m.

Friends' Church.

A special evangelistic service will be conducted at the Friends' church, Roanoke avenue and Twenty-fifth street, tonight at 8 o'clock, the pastor, Rev. Claude A. Roane, preaching at that hour. The pastor also will occupy his pulpit this morning at 11 o'clock. A song and praise service will be held at 3 p. m., and the Sunday school will meet at 9:30 a. m.

LEAVE FOR HOME.

Judge Shackelford and Judge Christian Take Richmond Steamer. Judge George Shackelford, of Orange county, who sat in the Circuit Court of Warwick county to hear the Newport News annexation proceedings, and Judge George L. Christian, of course, for Warwick county in this case, left last night for Richmond on the Old Dominion night line steamer. During his stay in the city Judge Shackelford was the guest of Senator Saxon W. Holt, in North End.
